

Santa Fe Professional Business Women has honored local businesses for their implementation of family-friendly policies and programs. Named employer of the year were Flow Science, Inc. (fewer than 35 employees) and New Mexico Bank and Trust (more than 35 employees).

SFPBW annually pays tribute to employers who meet criteria such as family-friendly employee policies, financial assistance for training or education courses, health care or financial assistance for health care, flexible work arrangements, and female employees who hold mid- and upper-level management positions.

Additional companies that met the criteria for consideration as employer of the year were Con Alma Health Foundation, Dragonfly Express, The Gentle Nudge School and The Pantry Restaurant.

For information about future programs, contact Kathy Jahner at 474-4990 or kathyjahner@generalmailingnm.com.

Awards honor S.F. businesses

The Santa Fe Chamber of Commerce, Santa Fe Community College and the city of Santa Fe have announced winners of the 2010 Santa Fe Business Awards, in collaboration with Daniels Insurance and Century Bank.

A total of six awards were given, including:

◆ Century Bank Business Excellence Awards: Fam Jam! Music, Vista Photonics, Flow Science.

◆ City of Santa Fe Small Business of the Year: Hutton Broadcasting.

◆ Santa Fe Community College Green Business of the Year: Restaurant Martín.

◆ City of Santa Fe Family Friendly Business of the Year: Häagen-Dazs/Santa Fe Bakery.